Dear Colleague,

Thank you for visiting The Business Leadership Development Corporation and The Center For Business Leadership Development on the internet.

We are a highly model and methodologically-driven firm that enables us to jump-start solutions, without being inhibited by a “cookie cutter” approach. We use our models and methodologies on our consulting engagements, communicate them through our articles and books, and teach them in our seminars.

The benefit to our enterprise clients and retail customers is that our systematized integrated approach provide both the mindset and action required for enterpriship – the discipline of entrepreneurship, leadership, and management that is both usable and memorable.

You can learn more about the discipline of enterpriship by subscribing to our articletter (article newsletter) by visiting my personal website: www.nigelalbrooks.com. You will also receive an invitation to take our Individual Competencies Assessment, which is vital to understanding yourself and how you perform the entrepreneurial, leadership, and managerial roles.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (602) 291-4595 or bld@bldsolutions.com.

Very truly yours,

Nigel A.L. Brooks
